72 Contacts

1.

Players and teams affiliated to member associations or provisional members of the confederations may not play matches or make sporting contacts with players or teams that are not affiliated to member associations or provisional members of the confederations without the approval of FIFA.

Member associations and their clubs may not play on the territory of another member association without the latter's approval.

73 Authorisation

Associations, leagues or clubs that are affiliated to a member association may only join another member association or take part in competitions on that member association's territory under exceptional circumstances. In each case, authorisation must be given by both member associations, the respective confederation(s) and by FIFA.

74 Dissolution

If FIFA is disbanded, its assets shall be transferred to the supreme court of the country in which its headquarters are situated. It shall hold these assets in trust as “bonus pater familiae” until FIFA is re-established.

75 Transitional provisions

These Statutes were adopted at the Extraordinary Congress in Zurich on 26 February 2016 and come into force sixty (60) days after the close of the said Congress, subject to the following provisions:

2.

Sixty (60) days after the close of the Congress, the Executive Committee will be automatically transformed into the Council. The incumbent members of the Executive Committee on such date will be the first serving members of the Council; their mandates on the Council will expire upon completion of their respective remaining terms of office on the Executive Committee. As a consequence, for a transitional period which will last until the entire Council has been elected by the member associations on the occasion of the congresses of the confederations concerned, the number of members of the Council will be below the number set forth in art. 33 par. 4 of these Statutes.

3.

The term limits set forth in art. 33 par. 3, art. 51 par. 4 and art. 52 par. 6 of these Statutes shall only apply to existing members of the existing committees as from the date of completion of their current mandates.

4.

The members of the Governance Committee shall be elected by the Congress in May 2016 (Mexico City).

5.

With regard to the standing committees that will no longer exist under these Statutes, the Council shall determine when they are to be disbanded. With regard to the standing committees that shall continue to exist under these Statutes but will be modified, the Council shall determine the details of the respective transitions. The Council shall also determine the point in time at which newly established standing committees shall take up their activities. The members of the committees which continue to exist and/or which will be modified shall conclude their terms of office for which they have already been appointed.

Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes

1 Application for admission

The Council may lay down the procedure for admission in special regulations.

2 Confederations

1.

The Council shall decide whether the association fulfils the requirements for admission to FIFA based on the confederation's final report.

2.

If the requirements have been fulfilled, the next Congress shall decide whether to admit the association or not.

3 Match agents

1.

Match agents may be employed to arrange matches.

2.

Match agents hired to organise matches between teams from the same confederation shall be recognised by the confederation concerned (licensed). The confederation shall issue appropriate rules.

3.

Match agents hired to organise matches between teams from different confederations shall hold a FIFA licence. The Council shall issue appropriate rules.

4.

FIFA is only entitled to intervene to enforce the contracts concluded between match agents and teams in the following cases:

- a) if the match or tournament at the source of the dispute involves teams from different confederations;
- b) if the match agent in question holds a FIFA licence.

4 Intermediaries

Players and clubs are entitled to engage the services of intermediaries when concluding an employment contract and/or a transfer agreement. The Council shall issue the Regulations on Working with Intermediaries.

5 Principle

Any person holding a permanent nationality that is not dependent on residence in a certain country is eligible to play for the representative teams of the association of that country.

2.

With the exception of the conditions specified in article 8 below, any player who has already participated in a match (either in full or in part) in an official competition of any category or any type of football for one association may not play an international match for a representative team of another association.

6 Nationality entitling players to represent more than one association

A player who, under the terms of art. 5, is eligible to represent more than one association on account of his nationality, may play in an international match for one of these associations only if, in addition to having the relevant nationality, he fulfils at least one of the following conditions:

- a) He was born on the territory of the relevant association;
- b) His biological mother or biological father was born on the territory of the relevant association;
- c) His grandmother or grandfather was born on the territory of the relevant association;
- d) He has lived continuously on the territory of the relevant association for at least two years.

2.

Regardless of par. 1 above, associations sharing a common nationality may make an agreement under which item (d) of par. 1 of this article is deleted completely or amended to specify a longer time limit. Such agreements shall be lodged with and approved by the Council.

7 Acquisition of a new nationality

Any player who refers to art. 5 par. 1 to assume a new nationality and who has not played international football in accordance with art. 5 par. 2 shall be eligible to play for the new representative team only if he fulfils one of the following conditions:

- a) He was born on the territory of the relevant association;
- b) His biological mother or biological father was born on the territory of the relevant association;
- c) His grandmother or grandfather was born on the territory of the relevant association;
- d) He has lived continuously for at least five years after reaching the age of 18 on the territory of the relevant association.

8 Change of association

If a player has more than one nationality, or if a player acquires a new nationality, or if a player is eligible to play for several representative teams due to nationality, he may, only once, request to change the association for which he is eligible to play international matches to the association of another country of which he holds nationality, subject to the following conditions:

- a) He has not played a match (either in full or in part) in an official competition at "A" international level for his current association, and at the time of his first full or partial appearance in an international match in an official competition for his current association, he already had the nationality of the representative team for which he wishes to play.
- b) He is not permitted to play for his new association in any competition in which he has already played for his previous association.

If a player who has been fielded by his association in an international match in accordance with art. 5 par. 2 permanently loses the nationality of that country without his consent or against his will due to a decision by a government authority, he may request permission to play for another association whose nationality he already has or has acquired.

3.

Any player who has the right to change associations in accordance with par. 1 and 2 above shall submit a written, substantiated request to the FIFA general secretariat. The Players' Status Committee shall decide on the request. The procedure will be in accordance with the Rules Governing the Procedures of the Players' Status Committee and the Dispute Resolution Chamber. Once the player has filed his request, he is not eligible to play for any representative team until his request has been processed.

9 Principle of promotion and relegation

1.

A club's entitlement to take part in a domestic league championship shall depend principally on sporting merit. A club shall qualify for a domestic league championship by remaining in a certain division or by being promoted or relegated to another at the end of a season.

2.

In addition to qualification on sporting merit, a club's participation in a domestic league championship may be subject to other criteria within the scope of the licensing procedure, whereby the emphasis is on sporting, infrastructural, administrative, legal and financial considerations. Licensing decisions must be able to be examined by the member association's body of appeal.

3.

Altering the legal form or company structure of a club to facilitate its qualification on sporting merit and/or its receipt of a licence for a domestic league championship, to the detriment of the integrity of a sports competition, is prohibited. This includes, for example, changing the headquarters, changing the name or transferring stakeholdings between different clubs. Prohibitive decisions must be able to be examined by the member association's body of appeal.

4.

Each member association is responsible for deciding national issues, which may not be delegated to the leagues. Each confederation is responsible for deciding issues involving more than one association concerning its own territory. FIFA is responsible for deciding international issues involving more than one confederation.

10

Amendments to the Laws of the Game

1.

FIFA shall notify its member associations of any amendments and decisions regarding the Laws of the Game within one month of the ordinary annual meeting of The IFAB.

2.

The member associations shall enforce these amendments and decisions no later than 1 July following The IFAB's annual meeting. Exceptions may be granted only to member associations whose football season has not terminated by this date.

3.

Member associations may apply such amendments and decisions as soon as they have been issued by The IFAB.

11 Nomination

1.

Each referee and assistant referee appointed to an international match shall belong to a neutral member association unless otherwise previously agreed by the member associations concerned.

2.

The referee and assistant referees chosen to officiate at an international match shall be included in the official FIFA List of International Referees and Assistant Referees.

12 Report

1.

The referee of every international “A” match shall send a report within 48 hours of the match both to FIFA and the member association on whose territory the match was played.

2.

This report shall be made on the official form given to the referee by the member association under whose jurisdiction the match was played.

3.

The report shall record all the disciplinary measures taken and the reasons for these measures.

13 Reimbursement

1.

Referees and assistant referees at international matches shall be entitled to:

- a) a daily allowance;
- b) reimbursement of travel expenses.

FIFA's Expenses Regulations shall determine the amounts, travel category and number of days due for reimbursement to which referees and assistant referees are entitled.

2.

The amount owed to the referees and assistant referees shall be paid to them in an easily convertible currency on the same day as the match by the organising member association.

3.

The expenses for hotel and board incurred by referees and assistant referees of international matches shall be borne by the organising member association.

14 Objectives

1.

FIFA shall ensure that its objectives are achieved and secured solely by using suitable material and human resources either of its own or by delegating to member associations or confederations or by working with the confederations in accordance with the FIFA Statutes.

2.

With reference to art. 2 (g) of the FIFA Statutes, FIFA shall take action especially, but not exclusively, against irregular betting activities, doping and racism. These activities are prohibited and subject to sanctions.

15 Enforcement

The Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes were adopted at the Extraordinary Congress in Zurich on 26 February 2016 and come into force immediately after adoption.

Standing Orders
of the Congress

1 Participation in the Congress

1.

Each member association may be represented at the Congress by a maximum of three delegates, all of whom may take part in the debates.

2.

The names of the delegates, including the one with the right to vote, shall be submitted to the general secretariat before the opening of the Congress. The general secretariat enters the delegates mentioned on to a list (numbered 1 to 3). The delegate with the right to vote is entered as number 1. If the delegate with the right to vote leaves the Congress during the debates, the delegate entered as number 2 on the member association's delegation list is entitled to vote. If this delegate is also absent, the delegate entered as number 3 is entitled to vote.

3.

FIFA shall bear the costs of travel and accommodation for three delegates of each member association taking part in the Congress. The Council shall issue appropriate directives in this connection.

2 Chair

1.

The President shall chair the Congress. If the President is unable to attend, the longest-serving vice-president available shall deputise. If none of the vice-presidents is present, the Congress shall elect a member of the Council as chairperson.

2.

The chair shall ensure that the Congress is conducted in strict compliance with these Standing Orders, open and close the Congress and debates, and, unless the Congress decides otherwise, grant delegates permission to speak and conduct all discussions.

3.

The chair shall be responsible for maintaining order during debates. He may take the following action against any Congress participant who disturbs the debates:

- a) a call to order;
- b) a reprimand;
- c) exclusion from one or more sessions.

4.

If an appeal is made against such action, the Congress shall decide immediately without debate.

3 Scrutineers

At the beginning of the first session, the Congress shall appoint an adequate number of scrutineers to count the votes and to assist the Secretary General in distributing and counting voting papers issued for the elections. The Council may decide to use electronic equipment to determine the results of a vote.

4 Interpreters

Official interpreters shall be appointed to translate into the official languages of the Congress. They shall be appointed by the Secretary General.

5 Debates

1.

Debates on each item on the agenda shall be preceded by a short report:

- a) by the chair or a member of the Council designated for this purpose;
- b) by a representative of the committee designated by the Council to give a report;
- c) by a delegate from the member association that requested the item be included in the agenda.

2.

The chair then opens the debate.

6 Speakers

1.

Permission to speak is granted in the order in which it is requested. A speaker may not begin speaking until he has obtained permission to do so. Speakers shall address the Congress from the rostrum intended for this purpose.

2.

A speaker may not speak for a second time on the same item until all other delegates who have requested permission to speak have spoken.

7 Proposals

All proposals shall be submitted in writing. Proposals which are not relevant to the subject under discussion shall not be admitted to the debate.

2.

Any amendment shall be drawn up in writing and passed to the chair before being put to the debate.

8 Procedural motions and closing of debates

1.

If a procedural motion is made, discussion on the main question shall be suspended until a vote has been taken on the motion.

2.

If a motion is made to close the discussion, it shall immediately be put to the vote without debate. If the motion is approved, permission to speak shall only be granted to those member associations who have asked to speak before the vote was taken.

3.

The chair shall close the discussion unless the Congress decides otherwise by a simple majority (more than 50%) of the valid votes cast.

9 Votes

1. Voting by secret ballot is prohibited.
2. Before each vote, the chair, or the person designated by him, shall read the text of the proposal aloud and explain the voting procedure (quorum) to the Congress. If an objection is raised, the Congress shall decide immediately.
3. Votes may be taken by roll call if requested by at least 15 of the member associations present and eligible to vote.
4. No-one is compelled to vote.
5. As a rule, votes are taken by a show of hands (voting cards) or by the use of electronic equipment.
6. Proposals shall be put to the vote in the order in which they are submitted. If there are more than two main proposals, they shall be put to the vote in succession and the delegates may not vote for more than one of the proposals.
7. Alterations to amendments shall be put to the vote before the amendments proper, and amendments before the main proposal.
8. Proposals without a vote against are regarded as having been passed.
9. The chair shall check the result of the vote and announce it to the Congress.
10. No-one is permitted to speak during the vote and until after the result has been announced.

10 Elections

1.

Elections shall be carried out by secret ballot. They shall either be conducted with ballot papers or by using televoters, electronic vote counters that guarantee the secrecy of the election. Elections of the President shall not be carried out by using televoters. The Secretary General, assisted by the scrutineers, shall conduct the distribution and counting of the ballot papers or the distribution and evaluation of the televoters.

2.

The number of ballot papers that have been distributed shall be announced by the chair before the count.

3.

If the number of ballot papers returned is equal to or fewer than the number of ballot papers distributed, the election shall be declared valid. If the number returned exceeds that of the ballot papers distributed, the vote shall be declared null and void and another vote shall be taken immediately.

4.

The chair shall announce the result of each ballot.

5.

The Secretary General shall put the ballot papers that have been collected and counted into envelopes intended for this purpose and seal them immediately. The general secretariat shall keep these envelopes and destroy them 100 days after the end of the Congress.

11

Calculation of majorities

1.

The simple majority (more than 50%) shall be calculated for elections, votes and other decisions on the basis of the number of valid ballot papers collected or the number of valid votes cast electronically. Blank ballot papers, invalid votes or electronic votes manipulated in any other way as well as abstentions shall be disregarded when calculating the simple majority.

2.

The absolute majority (more than 50%) shall be calculated on the basis of the number of member associations present and eligible to vote.

3.

If during an election a member association casts two or more votes in support of one candidate on one ballot paper or through an electronic vote counter in an election round, or if during a vote a member association casts two or more votes for the same matter, only the last vote cast shall be considered valid and counted.
